Introduction to Hallelujah Scriptures

The Hallelujah Scriptures was first introduced in the early 2000s by a group of Hebrew Israelites committed to restoring what they believe to be the original, authentic text of the Bible. The core motivation behind this version is to uphold the Hebrew roots of the faith and to present the Scriptures in a manner that emphasizes the sacred names, terms, and cultural context of the ancient Hebrew language.

Unlike many mainstream Bible translations, the Hallelujah Scriptures strives to eliminate traditional Christian titles like "God" and "Lord" in favor of Yahweh and Yahshua, respectively. This focus on the original Hebrew names aims to foster a more authentic connection to the scriptures and to distinguish this version from others that may have been influenced by translation biases over centuries.

Translation Philosophy and Approach

Restoration of Sacred Names

One of the hallmark features of the Hallelujah Scriptures is its commitment to restoring the original Hebrew names of the divine entities.
