Understanding Celtic Identity and Cultural Roots

Celtic culture encompasses a diverse range of peoples, languages, and traditions spanning Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Cornwall, Brittany, and the Isle of Man. Historically, these regions shared linguistic roots in the Celtic languages and a common cultural ethos centered on community, oral storytelling, and musical expression.

The Celtic Renaissance, beginning in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, aimed to revive and preserve these traditions in the face of rapid modernization and political suppression.
